SAGER IS AGAIN A WINNER

SCHREIBER HORSES SHOWING SUPERB FORM AT THE WOODBINE MEETING.

Jimmy Lane. Veteran Steeplechaser. Continues His Winning Career and Breaks His Own World's Record-Canadians Treated to Fine Racing.

Toronto, Ont. September 28.—The Ontario Jockey Club provided an excellent program at Woodbine this afternoon, and a large crowd visited the course to witness the sport. With bright sunshine overhead and the track in fairly good shape, race-goers thoroughly enjoyed a pleasant afternoon's outing. The Doneaster Plate, the Sefton Steeplechase and the Durham Cup were the features of a seven-race program, and with evenly balanced fields going to the post, keen sport was in order. The Durham Cup, at a mile and three-quarters, one of the annual fixtures of the fall meetings here, furnished a stirring finish, with Joseph E. Seagram's Seismic the winner by half a length over Frolic. Seismic was an odds-on choice, and was well ridden by jockey Phil. Muscrave.

Jinnay Lane, the famous old steeplechaser, scored his twenty-ninth victory through the field when he beat Nebuchadnezzar in easy fashion in the Sefton Steeplechase. This, it is claimed, is a world's record by three. Donald Macdonald, a prominent candidate for the $10,000 Dominion Handicap at Fort Erie, was taken into camp by Barney Schreiber's Sager, which came from behind and after a driving finish won going away by a length. The Schreiber racers have been in superb form at-Woodbine this fall. Trainer Powers has sent Sager to the post twice and he has been returned winner on each occasion, while Jack Atkin won his only start when he beat a good band of sprinters on the second any of the meeting.

The New York delegation put a good thing over when Herbert Turner won the second race from a big band of juveniles. He was heavily supported at a long price and there was some tall rooting at the finish by his backers.

Hugh Penny has secured a three-year contract on the apprentice rider, Melville Bell, who was formerly connected with H. G. Bedwell's stable.

George M. Hendrie has decided to dispose of all and his Camadian-breds in the paddock on Saturday. This means that the Valley Farm Stable will race only home-bred horses next season. Trainer Nixon will have a string o and politician, was a visitor at Woodbine this after noon.

G. E. Nash came from Montreal with Grant Hugh Brown's string.

News of the death of Thomas E. Mannix was received with much regret by horsemen here. Mr. Mannix raced a string at Fort Eric the first year that track opened and was a well-known figure on the Canadian circuit.

A draft of horses from the Valley Farm and Seagram stables were disposed of by auction here this morning. Some of the Valley Farm yearlings brought good prices, the star of the lot, a sister to Shimonese, bringing a record price for a Canadian-bred yearling when C. A. Crew purchased her for $1,050. G. M. Hendrie purchased Shimonese for $550 and E. Whyte secured Glimmer for $400. lie Gilbert went to J. Sheehan for $175.

RETTING ON ENGLISH AUTUMN HANDICAPS

Bronzino Heavily Backed to Win the Cesarewitch a Short Odds-English Gossip and Statistics

London, Eng., September 15.—Although its decision is nearly a month away, the Cesarewitch is attracting a vast deal of attention and quite heavy backing has already been awarded a number of its eligibles. The incitement to so much early antepost speculation was furnished by Bronzino. When this sturdy colt ran a close second to Swynford in the Doncaster St. Leger and followed this up by running away from Bachelor's Double in the Doncaster Cup, a great many people at once jumped to the conclusion that with only 110 pounds to carry, the Cesarewitch was bound to prove easy prey for him. So there is a rage to "get on" in good time and he was backed steadily and persistently at such absurdly short odds as 4 to 1. This naturally led to study of the claims of other horses and brought about the occasional backing of some that under ordinary circumstances would hardly have had a quotation for two or three weeks to come. But as a new feature a reaction against Bronzino has set in and yesterday he receded to 100 to 15 and was supplanted as first choice by Pure Gem, which has been backed down to 6 to 1. Other horses supported yesterday were Shuletoi and Laughing Mirror at 100 to 6; Rocksawage, Bridge of Earn and Last Call at 20 to 1; Bonnie Chance 25 to 1, and Stormfinch, Pillo and Cardinal Beaufort at 100 to 3. As yet the Cambridgeshire has only attracted desultry betting, with The Story a nominal favorite at 100 to 8. Mr. Whitney's celt. Whiskbroom, has been nibbled at recently at 20 to 1, but for modest sums only. London, Eng., September 15.-Although its

W. Raphael's colt, Louviers, has been turned out of training and will forthwith be sent to the stud. This son of Isinglass—St. Louvaine, it will be recalled, after winning the Newmarket Stakes, ran the late King Edward's Minoru to a short head in the Derby last year. Louviers subsequently won a small race at Ascot and Goodwood that season and his best performance this year was achieved in the Coronation Cup at Epsom, in which he ran third to Sir Martin and Bachelor's Double.

At the recent Kempton Park meeting the two year-old, Friss Flight, defeated Mr. Whitney's Adan—Belle of Troy filly for the Waterloo Nursery Stakes with such ease as to greatly impress trainer Joyner, who had considered the Adam filly most likely to win. The result was that Joyner bid First Flight up to $3.500 and bought heg at that price for Mr. Whitney's States with such ease as to greatly impress trainer Swynford's brilliant victory in the St. Leger has moved Lord Derby up to second place in the list of winning owners of the year and he is now not fai behind Mr. Fairie in stable earnings. He might even pass the latter but for the fact that the $50,006 Jockey Club Stakes, to be run at the Newmarket First October meeting, appears sure to be won by Lemberg, there being nothing approaching his class left in this rich race. John Hachmeister, manager of the Latonia Jockey Club, arrived to remain until the Downs fall meeting ends. He says that everything points to a fine session at Latonia. The program will be ready for distribution by October 10 and the four-weeks meeting at the Kenton County track will open October 24.

Stalls have been bedded at the Downs for the reception of ten horses owned by T. C. McDowell and twelve horses trained by J. W. May. Both strings will be brought tomorrow from Lexington. In this shipment will be Melisande, Mary Davis, King's Daughter, Danger Mark, Miss Nett, Premier and other winners.

will be brought tomorrow from Lexington. In this shipment will be Melisande, Mary Davis, King's Daughter, Danger Mark, Miss' Nett, Premier and other wimers.

Governor Gray, with the horses trained by Capt. J. T. Williams, five in all, will reach the Downs Friday morning in a car with W. S. House's string and the racers owned by W. P. and L. E. Fine. The Fines own Glorio, On the same train J. P. Ross will ship twelve head. J. C. Ferriss will bring ten, W. Gerst and G. H. Holle ten, W. G. Young eight and H. H. Selby five.

W. F. Schuite has decided to quit the turf. On October 15, in the Downs paddock, he will dispose of his entire racing stable, his yearlings and his weanlings, He will also sell his stallion, Batts, and all of his broodmares. Mr. Schulte succeeded Col. M. Lewis Clark as president of the Louisville Jockey Club and has been a prominent factor in American racing for upward of twenty years, Among the horses he will dispose of will be Zienap, Gliding Belle and King Olympian. The death of his wife and son and a desire to seek rest is the cause of his ecision to quit the sport he loves so well. Mr. Schulte contemplates a trip abroad.

Already the hotels are noting the effect of the race meeting, as many easterners are on the scen for the inauguration of the sport Saturday afternoon. Judge Price was at the Downs this morning and visited the stables of several noted horses. He says that the fall meeting is going to be the best held here in years and that it may prove to be the greatest of all. Judge Price expresses the belief that the St. Leger Handicaro, which brings together such horses as Ocean Bound. Helmet, Pinkola, Mary Davis, Countless, King's Daughter, Jack Aakin, Cherryola and Hanbridge, will be a splendid contest. This race was a feature of fall racing at the Downs when Judge Price was the racing secretary.

A new time indicator has reached Churchill Downs and will be installed at the suggestion of official time. The thing of the receive working on a pivot so it can be turned around and the fim

HELMET HAS A CLOSE CALL

FAVORITE IN HANDICAP AT LEXINGTON NARROWLY ESCAPES DEFEAT.

Leamence Is Beaten Only a Neck After Being Forced Into Worst Going-Movement of Horsemen to Louisville Begins.

Lexington, Ky., September 28. — Delightful weather, a good track and a fairly attractive card, the feature of which was a handleap for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and twenty yards, brought out a good crowd to the Kentucky Association course this afternoon, it being next to the last day of the fall meeting. Trainer May decided that it would be asking too much of Mary Davis and he withdrew her from the handleap, leaving Helmet, Leamence, Royal Report and Tom Bigbee to start. It seemed so much of a foregone conclusion that Helmet would defeat the other three that he went to the post an odds-on favorite. He was off in front, forced the pace and won in a hard drive with a margin of a neck over Leamence. Tom Bigbee was third, two lengths back at the finish. Leamence ran in the deeper going next to the rail and had no chance to get out, otherwise the result might have been reversed.

Walter Grater's Ethelda, scarcely considered as having a chance, led all the way and won the opening race handlily from Duquesne and Ada Meade. The favorite, Dainty Dame, got off in a tangle and had no chance to overhaul the leaders. The second race was a romp for the favorite, Princess Callaway, Labold, the only contender, was at no stage equal to the pace set by the daughter of Blues from Cal Milam's barn, dropped out of the clouds, as it were, and won the furth race by six lengths from the favorite, Explicit, after having led all the way.

Shortly before the victory of Miami, J. N. Camden bought from F. A. Forsythe the contract on jockey A. Thomas and the stallion Oddfellow, son of Barcaldine and Geheinmiss, by Rosierucian, for $6,100. The contract on Thomas will expire May 15, 1912. Oddfellow will go into the stud at Mr. Camden's farm in Woodford County. The entire band of old horses owned by Mr. Camden and twelve yearlings will be shipped to California for the winter meeting there.

Starter Cassidy received a telegram this morning from Sheepshead Bay informing him of the dangerous illness of Lucien Appleby, a well-known breeder and turfman.

T. E. MANNIX IS DEAD

New York, September 28.—Thomas E. Mannix, a widely known trainer of race horses, died yesterday at the Seely Hospital, Brooklyn, of kidney compilant. He was brought home from Canada desperately, ill a few days ago and sent to the hospital. Every attention was given to him, but he was beyond help. Septic poisoning had set in and he sank rape. Mr. Mannix left a fam., in good circumsta.ccs. He was a shrewd judge of horseflesh and a capable trainer. For years he had a clientele of occasional visitors at the races who liked to bet when he thought he was right.

Mannix trained German Silver, a horse he took from J. A. Bennet after a selling race at Gravesend last fall. Eschau, Madeline L., and Jolly for a couple of seasons, and made out fairly well with them.

Jockey McCahey, a fairly clever lightweight boy, was under contract to Mr. Mannix, who developed the lad, as he had developed several other riders.

Mr. Hachmeister was in Denver for some time at the bedside of his brother, who is still dangerously ill. While here Mr. Hachmeister arranged some of the details for the fall meeting at Latonia, which begins on October 24. Today he will take up his work at Louisville, where the fall meeting opens on Saturday. The racing this fall at Louisville and Latonia promises to be of the best class, something which is indicated by the caliber of the horses catered in the stake events. #### NOTES OF THE TURF.

Harry Payne Whitney has returned to New York om his trip to England.

Thomas Welsh will train exclusively for August elmont next year, it is said. Waldorf Astor's Winkipop won the Sixty-Second Triennial Produce Stakes at $50 each, with $1,500 added. King Midas was second and Souvigny third, Seven horses ran.

A. B. Spreckels will have thirty-three horses in training at Oakland the coming winter. One of the likeliest of the Spreckels yearlings that will race as a two-year-old at Oakland after the first of January is a son of Solitaire II.—Sevens, hence a half-brother to Dr. Leggo. He has already worked a quarter in 24 seconds. Another likely youngster is by Solitaire II.—Magdalenas. This fellow is a brother to Arimo.

WHITNEY COLT IN DEAD HEAT.

London, Eng., September 28.—The Hopeful Stakes of twenty-five sovereigns each, with 200 sovereigns added, was run at Newmarket today and resulted in a dead heat between H. P. Whitney's Borrow, by Hamburg—Forget, and J. B. Joel's Sun Star. Porphyrio was third. There were six starters.

Equivalent booking odds—Colonel Ashmeade, 1980 to 100 straight, 385 to 100 place, 100 to 100 show; Alice Baird, 125 to 100 place, 40 to 100 show: Bad News, 30 to 100 show.

Winner—B. g, by Sain—Antipode (trained by W. Shields).

Went to post at 4:58. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same. COLONEL ASHMEADE was hustled into a long lead at once and, standing the final drive gamely, just lasted long enough to win. ALICE BAIRD ran in closest pursuit all the way and almost got up in a resolute finish. BAD NEWS ran well, but was shuffled back on the first turn and lost much ground. OTILO showed speed, but tired in the stretch. ALL RED suffered from interference. ALMA BOY was almost thrown on the first turn. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.
